- eSTÓR is a nationally funded project that enables people working in public administration across Ireland to collect and share language data via a dedicated online platform.
- This language data, pending on licensing agreement, is relayed to the European Commission for machine translation training purposes.
- eSTÓR works under the Research Centre ADAPT, that focuses on Artificial Intelligence throughout 8 universities in Ireland

How did eSTÓR come About?

- European Language Resource Infrastructre (ELRI) project 2017-2019

National Relay Stations set up in Spain, France, Portugal, Spain and Ireland- gather, process and share

Language Resources with the European Commission to improve translation services in Europe, co-funded by the European Union

- PRINCIPLE Project 2019-2021

Creation of bespoke MT engines for public administration in Iceland, Norway, Croatia and Ireland to improve MT quality for the European Commission's eTranslation MT engine

- The National Relay Station 2020-2022

Continuation from ELRI

- eSTÓR

Continuation from ELRI and NRS

How does it work?

Go to www.estór.ie
and register an account / log in Upload resources in Irish / English (bilingual or monolingual) in .doc,

.txt or .tmx form

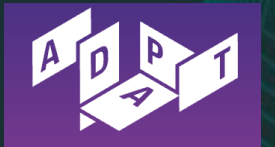

That's it!
You've contributed to improving Irish language technology

Why share data with us?

- Improving Irish translation services in Ireland and Europe — Free TMX Files
- Reduce translation costs with eTranslation
- Makes Irish more digitally accessible in the digital age
- Sharing valuable datasets for re-use — the Open Data Directive, which is based on the general principle that public and publicly funded data should be reusable for commercial or non-commercial purposes.
